

of Baltimore City or] of the circuit court for the county[, as the case may be,] shall determine and set bond to be filed by the petitioner sufficient to pay the reasonable costs of said appeal, recount, review and recanvass.

16-4.

(c) If any mistake is discovered, the board shall correct the same without delay. If the board declines or refuses to make the correction, then upon the sworn petition of any qualified voter who would have the right to vote for a candidate or question at the approaching election, the circuit court for any county [or one of the judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City], by order, may require the board to correct the error or to show cause why the error should not be corrected.

(c) The titles of offices may be arranged horizontally or vertically on the ballots, with the names of candidates for an office arranged longitudinally under or transversely opposite the title of his office. The titles of offices shall be so arranged that: (1) there shall first appear those titles of public offices for which the voters of the entire State or of an entire congressional district may vote as follows: President and Vice-President, Governor and Lieutenant Governor, Comptroller, Attorney General, U. S. Senator, Representative; (2) there shall next appear the titles of offices of the Senate and House of Delegates of the General Assembly of Maryland; (3) there shall next appear the titles of the offices of Mayor, president of the city council, Comptroller and members of the City Council of Baltimore City or county executive and county council or county commissioners of the respective counties; (4) there shall next appear the titles of candidates for judge of the circuit courts of the several counties [and of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City] and questions of continuance in office of an incumbent judge of the Court of Appeals and the Court of Special Appeals; (5) there shall next appear, in the following order, the titles of offices for which the voters of the respective counties or Baltimore City may vote, including, but not limited to, the offices of Treasurer, State's Attorney, clerk of the circuit court in the several counties [or clerks of the Superior Court, Circuit Court No. 1, Circuit Court No. 2, Criminal Court, Baltimore City Court and Court of Common Pleas in Baltimore City], register of wills, judges of the orphans courts, and sheriff; (6) the titles of party offices shall follow the titles of public offices on all ballots.

(d) The party designation of each candidate, properly separated from his name, shall be included on all ballots at any election; provided, however, that the party name shall consist of one word only. In addition, the name of each
