

as the case may be,] either where any party resides or has his or its principal place of business. The court, in its discretion may permit other interested persons to intervene.

256.

An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the circuit court [or Baltimore City Court, as the case may be,] under this subtitle by appeal to the Court of Special Appeals. The appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from law courts in other civil cases. This section does not apply to cases arising under the Maryland Vehicle Law unless a right to appeal to the Court of Special Appeals is specifically provided, or to review or to further review of a final judgment of a circuit court [or the Baltimore City Court] in relation to an action of the Inmate Grievance Commission.

~~338-~~

~~The Compact Administrator is directed to consult with the immediate family of any proposed transferee and, in the case of a proposed transferee from an institution in this State to an institution in another party state, to take no final action without approval of the circuit court of the county in which the proposed transferee is located, or if he is in Baltimore City, by one of the equity courts of the Supreme Bench.~~

Article 48A - Insurance Code

27.

(3) Subpoenas of witnesses shall be served by the sheriff in the same manner as if issued from a circuit court. If any individual fails to obey a subpoena lawfully served, the Commissioner shall forthwith report such disobedience, together with a copy of the subpoena and proof of service thereof, to [the Baltimore City court or] the circuit court for the county in which the individual was required to appear, and such court shall forthwith cause such individual to be produced and shall impose penalties as though he had disobeyed a subpoena issued out of such court.

A demand for a hearing received by the Commissioner prior to the effective date of any order issued by him or within ten (10) days after such order is delivered, shall stay the effectiveness of such order pending the hearing and an order made thereon, except as to action taken or proposed (i) under an order on hearing, or (ii) under an order based upon impairment of assets or unsound financial condition of an insurer; and if the Commissioner after written request therefor fails to grant a stay, the person aggrieved may
