

and/or revocation of a license or restitution of moneys may obtain a review thereof [in Baltimore City Court or] in the circuit court for the county[, as the case may be,] by filing in such court within thirty days after the date of order of suspension, revocation or restitution a written petition asking that the order be set aside. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the Commissioner and the applicant. The finding of facts, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive upon the court. The court shall determine whether the order of revocation, suspension or restitution is in accordance with law.

(b) In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (a) of this section, any nonresident person, firm or corporation desiring to carry on the business of construction in this State, as defined in subsection (a) shall:

(1) Obtain a license by paying an annual fee of $50 and applying to [the clerk of the court of common pleas in Baltimore City or] the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the work will be performed; and

(2) Obtain an additional $50 license for each single contract in which the gross amount of that contract is in excess of $1,000.

(b) The Commission may refer charges or complaints made by itself or other persons under the provisions of this subtitle to a real estate hearing board which shall include at least one member of the Commission appointed from the public and at least one of the nonpublic members for hearings on these matters. The board shall hold hearings on all matters referred to it and shall file its finding with the Commission. The exercise or performance of all powers, authority, duties and functions vested in the board by the provisions of this subtitle, shall be subject to the power and authority of the Secretary of Licensing and Regulation as set forth in Article 41 of this Code, or elsewhere in the laws of this State. Unless the Commission or any of its members determines, within 15 days of the filing by the board, that a hearing by the Commission is required, the decision or order of the board shall be a final decision which may be appealed by an aggrieved party directly to the circuit court of any county [or the Superior Court of Baltimore City,] and that decision by the board shall be considered a final decision of the Commission.
