

pursuant to § 38A of Article 64A, as added by Chapter 255 of the Acts of 1973. It includes members of the General Assembly, judges of the Court of Appeals, the Court of Special Appeals, the various circuit courts, [the Supreme Bench of Baltimore,] the District Court, the Maryland Tax Court, and the various orphans' courts, and part-time and contractual employees paid through the Central Payroll Bureau or authorized to be paid through the Central Payroll Bureau by § 38A of Article 64A. The term "State employees" also includes the clerks of the courts in all counties and Baltimore City and all employees in the office of the clerks of courts; and all registers of wills in all counties and Baltimore City and all employees in the office of the register of wills; and all contractual employees of the State of Maryland, whether or not they are paid through the Central Payroll Bureau or authorized to be paid through the Central Payroll Bureau by § 38A of Article 64A. In all cases of doubt as to whether a person is to be eligible for participation in the deferred compensation plan, the board of trustees that administers this plan shall determine whether any person is a State employee as defined in this subtitle irrespective of the method of payment.

Article 75 1/2 - Professional Engineers

17.

(g) Any Person aggrieved by a final decision of the Board in denying, suspending, revoking or refusing to renew his certificate of registration, or from any other final action of the Board, may appeal therefrom [to the Baltimore City Court, or] to the circuit court of the county in which he resides or has his principal place of business. All appeals shall be governed by the provisions of § 255 of Article 41 (Administrative Procedure Act - Judicial Review).

Article 78 - Public Service Commission Law

89.

The validity of any rule or regulation of the Commission may be determined upon petition for a declaratory judgment addressed [to the Superior Court of Baltimore City or] to the circuit court for the county where the petitioner has its principal office in this State whenever it appears that the rule or regulation, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs, or threatens to interfere with or impair, the legal rights or privileges of the petitioner. The Commission shall be made a party to the proceeding. The declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the petitioner has first requested the Commission to pass upon the validity of the rule or regulation in question.
