

(a) Proceedings for review under § 90 of this article shall be instituted in the circuit court in equity for any county within which operations are carried on by the public service company involved [, or in any equity court in Baltimore City]. If more than one proceeding to review an order of the Commission is instituted, the court may, upon motion of either party, transfer the proceeding to any other court having jurisdiction. If a rehearing by the Commission is duly applied for, proceedings for judicial review may be filed after the service of the decision of the Commission denying the hearing. The Commission may be a party to such appeal.

When the Commission is of the opinion that any public service company subject to its jurisdiction is violating or is about to violate any of the provisions of this article, it shall cause action to be brought in its name for mandamus or injunction [before any of the judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, or] in the circuit court of any county [as the case may be,] in which the company does business or has its principal place of business. The court shall allow a period not exceeding 20 days to show cause why the relief prayed should not be granted, and shall upon the expiration of said period immediately inquire into the merits, without other or formal pleadings and without respect to any technical requirement. The court may join as parties such persons as may be necessary or proper to make its judgment or processes effective, and shall make such final order, granting such relief, as may be appropriate.

Article 78B - Racing Commission

Upon the award of days to any applicant, and upon payment of the license fees as herein prescribed, the Commission shall issue a license for the holding of the meeting or meetings during the days awarded to such applicant, and for which the license fees shall have been paid. Said license shall be subject to all rights, regulations and conditions from time to time prescribed by the Commission and shall be subject to suspension or revocation by the Commission for any cause whatsoever which the Commission may, in its discretion, deem sufficient. If any license is suspended or revoked, said Commission shall state publicly its reason for so doing, and cause an entry of such reasons to be made on the minute book of the Commission, and its action shall be final, provided, however, the propriety of such action shall be subject to review, upon questions of law only, by the circuit court of the county within which such license was granted [or by the Baltimore City Court, if such license shall have been granted in Baltimore City].
