

now serving and the member of said Commission now holding the designation of chairman, shall terminate and end upon July 1, 1959, and each member shall be appointed as a judge of the Maryland Tax Court hereby created, to serve, however, only for such period of time as is equal to the unexpired balance of the term for which they, respectively, were appointed as members of said State Tax Commission. In addition, the Governor shall appoint one judge for a term expiring on the first Monday of June in 1960 and one judge for a term expiring on the first Monday of June in 1962. In case of any vacancy, the Governor shall appoint a successor for the unexpired term, subject to the limitations and qualifications contained in this section. The judges of the Court shall receive the salaries that are provided in the annual budget, these salaries to be payable out of the treasury of the State and be subject to Article 3, § 35 of the Constitution.

(i) The Court shall hear and determine all appeals promptly. In proper cases the Court shall file a written order. Copies of the order shall be certified by the clerk, under the seal of the Court, to the agency appealed from and to all parties to the appeal. The order is final and conclusive, unless an appeal is taken to a circuit court for a county [or the Baltimore City Court] as hereinafter provided.

(l) Any party to the proceedings may appeal from the Court's final order to the circuit court [of] FOR a county [or to the Baltimore City Court].

(o) In any case, the circuit court for the county [or the Baltimore City Court] shall determine the matter upon the record made in the Maryland Tax Court. The circuit court [or Baltimore City Court] shall affirm the Tax Court order if it is not erroneous as a matter of law and if it is supported by substantial evidence appearing in the record. In other cases, the circuit court [or Baltimore City Court] may affirm, reverse, remand, or modify the order appealed from.

(p) Any party to the proceedings may appeal from the order of the circuit court [or Baltimore City Court] to the Court of Special Appeals. The appeal shall be taken within 30 days of the final judgment of the lower court.
