

32A.

(d) A person, firm, corporation or agency aggrieved by the refusal of the State Department of Human Resources to issue a license under this section or by the State Department's revocation or suspension of such a license, may appeal therefrom to the circuit court of the county in which the person, firm, corporation or agency has his or its residence or principal office, as the case may be, [or to the Baltimore City Court, if the office or residence is in Baltimore City]. There is a further right of appeal to the Court of Special Appeals at the instance of either party.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That section(s) of the Annotated Code of Maryland (as enacted by Chapter 292 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1943) read(s) as follows:

Article 88A - Social Services Administration

51.

Whenever a local unit receives a notification of the dependency of a child or an [applicant] APPLICATION for assistance, a record shall promptly be made of the circumstances establishing the dependency of the child and the facts supporting the application made under this subtitle, and such other information as may be required by the State Department. Each local unit and the State Department and the officers and authorized employees thereof shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations, conduct examinations, subpoena witnesses, require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records and papers, and may make application to the circuit court of the county [or the Superior Court of Baltimore City] to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of such books, records and papers.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That section(s) of the Annotated Code of Maryland read(s) as follows:

Article 89 - Division of Labor and Industry

31.

(1) In case any of the proposed rules, regulations and standards, or modifications, amendments or revocations thereof submitted by the Board are identical with any rules, regulations and standards promulgated by any other department, board, or public agency of this State, or identical with any national consensus standards and/or established federal standards, the Commissioner may adopt by reference and issue such rules, regulations and standards without the necessity of a public hearing thereon,
