

notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (i) hereof, provided the Commissioner shall publish or otherwise circulate notice of his action in adopting such rules, regulations and standards by reference, complies with subsections (j) and (k) hereof, and files copies thereof with the clerk of the Court of Appeals, with the Secretary of State, with the State Library, with each of the libraries of the respective circuit courts of the several counties, [with the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City,] with the State Department of Legislative Reference, and with the General Assembly of Maryland.

(a) Any person adversely affected or aggrieved by any rule, regulation, standard or order of the Commissioner issued under this subtitle may obtain a review thereof in any circuit [or equity] court of the political subdivision in which (1) the violation is alleged to have occurred or (2) where the employer has its principal office or (3) in the CIRCUIT COURT FOR Baltimore City [Court], as the case may be, by filing in such court within thirty days following the issuance of such rule, regulation, standard or order, a written petition praying that the rule, regulation, standard or order be modified or set aside. A copy of such petition shall be served on the Commissioner and other affected parties thereto. The findings of the Commissioner with respect to questions of fact, as supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive. The court shall determine whether the rule, regulation, standard or order is in accordance with law. The commencement of proceedings under this subsection shall not operate as a stay of any rule, regulation, standard or order issued by the Commissioner under the provisions of this subtitle, except that the court, after notice to the Commissioner and hearing, may grant a stay upon such condition or such security or bond as may, in its discretion, seem proper.

39.

(d) If the Commissioner arbitrarily or capriciously fails to seek relief under this section, any employee who may be injured by reason of such failure or the representative of such employees, may bring an action against the Commissioner in the circuit court for the subdivision in which the imminent danger is alleged to exist [or if the danger is alleged to exist in Baltimore City, in the Baltimore City Court,] for a writ of mandamus to compel the Commissioner to seek such an order and for such further relief as may be appropriate.

43.

(b) Any employee who believes that he has been discharged or otherwise discriminated against by any person
