

in violation of this section may, within thirty days after a violation occurs, file a complaint with the Commissioner, in writing and acknowledged by the employee, alleging the discrimination. Upon receipt of the complaint, the Commissioner shall cause an investigation to be made as he deems appropriate. Within ninety days of the receipt of a complaint filed under this section, the Commissioner shall notify the complainant of the determination under this subsection (b). If upon investigation, the Commissioner determines that the provisions of this section have been violated, he shall file a petition in [any] THE circuit court of the political subdivision in which (1) the alleged violation occurred or (2) where the employer has its principal office or (3) in the [Circuit Court] CIRCUIT COURT for Baltimore City, as the case may be, to restrain the violation of subsection (a) of this section and for other appropriate relief including rehiring or reinstatement of the employee to his former position with back pay.

Article 89C - Support of Dependents

2.

(e) "Court" means the District Court and any other court in this State which exercises criminal jurisdiction over the enforcement of laws respecting duties of support, and [either] the circuit court for any county [in this State the Circuit Court or the Circuit Court No. 2 of Baltimore City] and juvenile courts having jurisdiction over the civil enforcement of laws respecting duties of support; and when the context requires, means the court of any other state as defined in a substantially similar reciprocal law.

10.

Jurisdiction of all civil enforcement proceedings hereunder is vested in the circuit court of any county [in the State, either the Circuit Court or the Circuit Court No. 2 of Baltimore City,] and juvenile courts having jurisdiction over the enforcement of laws respecting duties of support.

Article 95A - Unemployment Insurance Law

7.

(h) Any party aggrieved by a decision of the Board of Appeals may secure judicial review thereof by appeal to the circuit court of the county [or the Superior Court of Baltimore City, as the case may be]. The Board of Appeals may in its discretion, certify to such court questions of law involved in any decision by it. In any judicial proceeding under this section, the findings of the Board of Appeals as to the facts, if supported by competent, material and substantial evidence in view of the entire record, and