

granted to such veteran by this subtitle, shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court of the county having jurisdiction of the governmental unit involved, or to the [Superior Court of] CIRCUIT COURT FOR Baltimore City if the ~~State-Commissioner-of-personnel~~ SECRETARY OF PERSONNEL is involved, [or if the courts of Baltimore City have jurisdiction of the governmental unit involved,] and in case more than one court shall have jurisdiction of any governmental unit, the appeal may be taken to any court having jurisdiction. Upon appeal, the court, without intervention of a jury, shall hear the case de novo, and shall fully determine the rights of the complaining veteran and pass an appropriate order. From the order of the lower court in any such case, there shall be an appeal to the Court of Special Appeals by either the veteran or the State, or other governmental unit involved.

If any Second World War veteran seeking court relief, as this section provided, shall apply to the judge of the lower court having jurisdiction of his appeal, the judge shall assign counsel to such veteran without cost to him. No court costs shall be assessed against any veteran seeking court relief as in this section provided.

Article 100 - Work, Labor and Employment

Whenever, because of the existence of a state of war, the Governor determines that it is necessary, for the protection and welfare of the people of the State, that all able-bodied persons, between the ages hereinafter mentioned, be employed in occupations carried on by the State, the counties or the City of Baltimore, or any of their agencies, or be employed in occupations carried on by private persons, firms or corporations, whether agricultural, industrial or otherwise, and which occupations, whether carried on by the State, the counties, the City of Baltimore, or by private employers, the Governor finds to be essential for the protection and welfare of the people of the State and the United States and also finds that the same cannot be carried on as the protection and welfare of the people of this State and the United States require without resort to this subtitle, then the Governor shall be authorized, by proclamation, to require every able-bodied person between 18 and 50 years of age, inclusive, within the State, not then or thereafter regularly or continuously employed or engaged in any lawful and useful business, occupation, trade or profession of any kind, to register forthwith his or her name, address, age and any other information which the Governor shall require, with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which such person may be, [or with the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City, if such person be in Baltimore City]. It shall be the duty of said clerk, from time to time, upon request of the Governor, to
