

provided. The Governor shall thereupon assign such persons to work as provided in § 56.

86.

(c) Any person who may be aggrieved by any administrative regulation or wage order issued under this subtitle may obtain a review thereof [in the Baltimore City court or] in the circuit court for the county[, as the case may be,] by filing in such court within 60 days after the date of publication of such regulation a written petition praying that the regulation be modified or set aside. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the Commissioner. The finding of facts, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive upon the court. The court shall determine whether the regulation is in accordance with law.

The commencement of proceedings under this section shall not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of an administrative regulation or wage order issued under the provisions of this subtitle.

If it is found that a public body has not complied with any of the terms of this subtitle, the Commissioner shall give notice thereof in writing to the public body. Sufficient time may be allowed for compliance therewith as the Commissioner deems necessary. After the expiration of the time prescribed in the notice, the Commissioner in writing, may inform the Attorney General of the fact that the notice has been given and that the person or public authority to whom it was directed has not complied with the notice. Upon receipt thereof, the Attorney General at the earliest possible time shall bring suit in the name of the State in the circuit court of the county [or in the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City] in which the public body is located, to seek such remedies which the court may find appropriate to effectuate the policies of this subtitle. Both the plaintiff and defendant in the action shall have the same rights of appeal as are provided by law in other injunction proceedings.

Article 101 - Workmen's Compensation

(b) If a person in attendance before the Commission or a commissioner refuse, without reasonable cause, to be examined or to answer a legal and pertinent question, or to produce a book or paper when ordered to do so by the Commission, the Commission may, and, upon request of any party to proceedings before the Commission, shall apply to any judge [of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, or] of the circuit court of any county, upon proof by affidavit of
