

the circuit court in the county[, or of Superior Court of Baltimore City,] in which the property was located at the time of transfer.

6-106.

In addition to the requirements of the two preceding sections:

(4) The transferee may within ten days after he takes possession of the goods file a petition in the circuit court for the county in which the place of business of the transferor is situated [or in the circuit court or Circuit Court No. 2 of Baltimore City in case the place of business of the transferor is situated in Baltimore City] and pay the consideration into such court asking that a receiver or receivers be appointed by said court to take charge of the distribution of the agreed purchase price and the transferee may discharge his duty under this section by giving notice by registered or certified mail to all the persons to whom the duty runs that the consideration has been paid into that court and that they should file their claims there. If said receivership is granted then said receiver or receivers, upon qualification by filing an approved bond in the amount fixed by the court, shall be entitled to the custody and distribution of the agreed purchase price under orders of the court as in other receiverships.

9-401.

(1) The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

(a) When the collateral is equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts, or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or consumer goods, then in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county of the debtor's residence [or with the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City if the debtor resides in Baltimore City] or if the debtor is not a resident of this State then in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the goods are kept [or with the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City if the goods are kept in Baltimore City], and in addition when the collateral is crops growing or to be grown, in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the land on which the crops are growing or to be grown is located [or with the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore City if the land is located in Baltimore City];

(c) In all other cases, in the office of the Maryland State Department of Assessments and Taxation and in addition, if the debtor has a place of business in only one county of this State, also in the office of the clerk of the
