

Any person aggrieved by a decision of the administrator or as to whose claim the administrator has failed to act within 90 days after the filing of the claim, may commence an action in the circuit court for the county [or in one of the law courts of Baltimore City] to establish his claim. The proceeding shall be brought within 90 days after the decision of the administrator or within 180 days from the filing of the claim if the administrator fails to act.

(b) If any person refuses to permit the examination of records, the administrator may issue a subpoena to compel the person to testify and produce records. The subpoena shall be served by the sheriff of the county where the person resides or may be found. The person shall be entitled to the same per diem and mileage as witnesses appearing in the A circuit court of the State [or the law courts of Baltimore City], which shall be paid by the State.

(c) If any person refuses to obey any subpoena so issued or refuses to testify or produce records, the administrator may present a petition to the circuit court of the county [or one of the law courts of Baltimore City] where the person is served with the subpoena or where the person resides. The court then shall issue an order to require the person to obey the subpoena or to show cause for failure to obey it. Unless the person shows sufficient cause for failing to obey the subpoena, the court immediately shall direct the person to obey and, on refusal to comply, adjudge the person to be in contempt of court and punished as the court may direct.
