(a) Any lien created in favor of the Service pursuant to this subtitle is effective against the person on whose property the lien exists. However, the lien is not effective against any third party unless written notice of the lien is recorded and indexed in a permanent record maintained in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in each county [and the Circuit Court of Baltimore City] in which the property subject to the lien or any part of it is located.

3-130.

If the service and a municipality or person fail to reach agreement on rates, fees, or other charges to be exacted by the service, the Public Service Commission, on the petition of either party to the disagreement, shall assume jurisdiction for the purpose of arbitrating the disagreement. Its determination shall be final and binding on all parties concerned, subject to the right of any party to appeal the determination to the circuit court of any county within which the municipality or person is located, resides, or carries on business, [or to any equity court in Baltimore City]. In any appeal the decision of the Commission is prima facie correct and shall be affirmed unless clearly shown to be (1) in violation of constitutional provisions, or (2) made on unlawful procedure, or (3) arbitrary or capricious, or (4) affected by other error of law. It is the intention of this subtitle that judicial review in all instances includes the right to
