

(i) It shall be unlawful for any person, either for his own use or for the use of any other person, to falsely represent his age for the purpose of illegally purchasing, receiving or obtaining any alcoholic beverages. Any person violating any of the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $20 or imprisoned for not less than five days nor more than twenty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(j) It shall be unlawful for any person to falsely represent the age of any person for the purpose of aiding, assisting or abetting such minor to illegally purchase, receive or obtain any alcoholic beverages. Any person violating any of the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall suffer the penalties prescribed in § 200 of this article.

(k) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to apply and be effective within the corporate limits of the City of Annapolis. In Anne Arundel County outside the limits of the City of Annapolis any person charged with selling or furnishing alcoholic beverages to a minor who establishes to the satisfaction of the court that he used due caution in an effort to ascertain the age of the minor and that in the exercise of reasonable caution he was deceived by the use of documentary evidence, and that for these reasons he was not able to ascertain that the minor was in fact a minor, may not be found guilty of selling or furnishing alcoholic beverages to a minor nor shall he or the licensee be subject to any penalty or to the suspension or revocation of the license for this act.

(l) In Harford County any person charged with selling or furnishing alcoholic beverages to a minor who establishes to the satisfaction of the court that he used due caution in an effort to ascertain the age of the minor and that in the exercise of reasonable caution he was deceived by the use of documentary evidence, and that for such reasons he was not able to ascertain that the minor was in fact a minor, shall not be found guilty of selling or furnishing alcoholic beverages to a minor nor shall he or the licensee be subject to any penalty or to the suspension or revocation of the license for such act.

(m) In Calvert County, it shall be unlawful for any person under twenty-one years to buy, consume, or to have in his possession, any alcoholic beverages other than beer and light wine and for any person under eighteen years to buy, consume or have on his person beer or light wine in any public place or on any public highway. It shall be lawful for any bona fide employee to have alcoholic beverages in his possession in the course of his employment where the employment is not prohibited by this article. Any person
