CHAPTER 845

(House Bill 94)

AN ACT concerning

Special Election Costs - Fifth Congressional District

FOR the purpose of requiring the Board of Public Works to pay -a- certain ~~amount~~ amounts to the governing body bodies of Prince George's County and Montgomery County as reimbursement for the cost of conducting a special primary and a special election in the Fifth Congressional District during 1981; providing -a- maximum ~~limit~~ limits to the reimbursement; and providing that the Board of Public Works shall review or have reviewed the ~~amount~~ amounts requested for reimbursement.

Preamble

WHEREAS, A special primary and a special election were held in the Fifth Congressional District of this State during the Spring of 1981; and

WHEREAS, The requirements of law are such that the special election process must occur on very short notice and is therefore rarely anticipated in the budget of the county or counties affected; and

WHEREAS, The Fifth Congressional District occupies a substantial portion of Prince George's County-~~7~~- and a portion of Montgomery County; and

WHEREAS, The total cost to Prince George's County in conducting the special primary and special election was $157,553.97-~~7~~- and the total cost to Montgomery County in conducting the special primary and special election was $15,352.53; and
