SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That section(s) of the Annotated Code of Maryland read(s) as follows:

Article 27 - Crimes and Punishments

639A.

[(b) A District Court judge may place convicted offenders incarcerated at the Anne Arundel County detention center on a work release program under which persons sentenced to imprisonment in the Anne Arundel County detention center may be granted the privilege of leaving actual confinement during reasonable hours for the purpose of working at gainful employment, and to make such provisions for the payment of the offender's lawful obligations, after payroll deductions required by law, for support of his dependents, restitution, payment of fines, court costs including repayment to the county for assigned counsel, and such amount determined to be the cost to the county of providing food, lodging and clothing for the offender, from the moneys earned by him as the court shall deem reasonable and proper. The earnings of the prisoner shall be collected and disbursed by the State Department of Parole and Probation as directed by the court.]
