

(ii) Pledge its assets to secure the debt;

(5) Rent its vaults or safe-deposit boxes and, in accordance with the rental agreement, permit deposits of property;

(6) Subject to § 5-503 of this article, buy, hold, and convey real property;

(7) Subject to § 4-604 of this title, act as trustee under:

(i) The federal Self-Employed Individuals Tax Retirement Act of 1962; or

(ii) The federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974; [and]

(8) WITH THE PRIOR APPROVAL OF THE COMMISSIONER, EXERCISE THE POWERS GRANTED UNDER § 3-207 OF THIS ARTICLE TO A TRUST COMPANY; AND

[(8)] (9) Exercise all of the powers usual in carrying on a business of savings banking.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1982.

Approved June 1, 1982.

CHAPTER 905

(House Bill 1848)

AN ACT concerning

Domestic Violence - Ex Parte Order

FOR the purpose of clarifying the effective date of an ex parte order that the court may grant requiring certain persons to vacate a family home giving temporary possession of family home to certain other persons for a certain period of time; providing for the reissuance of the order until service is complete, effected; prohibiting the reissuance of an order after a certain date; requiring the appropriate-law-enforcement-agency ~~to file~~ return of service to be filed with the court; and generally relating to ex parte orders issued by courts due to domestic violence.