

(2) A complete accounting of the intended use of further payments of such funds including the relationship of such future use to the presence of a racetrack. In the event that a future use will involve expenditure or commitment of such funds over a period of more than one year, the accounting of intended use shall include a schedule reflecting the annual amount to be expended or committed for each year through the completion of the intended use.

(3) A certification from the fiscal officer of the jurisdiction that any and all such funds will be held by the county or Baltimore City in a special account, and will be used only for the purposes specified in the report.

(4) A description of the procedures used by the county or Baltimore City to select the projects to be included in the accounting of intended use required under subsection (e)(2) above, including the methods of solicitation and degree of participation in those procedures by the public.

Article 78D - Regional Planning Council

The Regional Planning Council has these additional functions and powers:

(1) To conduct research required for the planning of the regional area, including the collection of data with respect to population trends, the social, economic, physical, and governmental factors affecting the development of the area; and The Council shall make its findings available to persons interested.

(2) To advise units of government concerning the relationship of any plans, projects, proposals, and policies adopted or under consideration by any such unit of government to other plans, projects, proposals, and policies applicable to the regional planning area.

(3) To prepare and make available to units of government recommended standards for building and subdivision-control ordinances, zoning, and other planning regulations, and for administrative practices and procedures under such ordinances or regulations.

(4) To prepare and recommend methods for establishing capital improvement programs and budgeting therefor, and schedules of priority of public projects for units of government.

(5) [To] SUBJECT TO ARTICLE 40, § 51 OF THE CODE, TO prepare, publish, and distribute an annual report
