

House Bill No. 1289

AN ACT concerning

Motor Vehicle Emissions Inspection

~~FOR the purpose of providing that during a certain initial period of the motor vehicle emissions inspection program it is not mandatory for the owner of a vehicle to make certain repairs or have the vehicle reinspected, requiring the Motor Vehicle Administration and an inspection facility to encourage a certain vehicle owner to take certain actions, providing that certain repairs and reinspection shall become mandatory under certain circumstances, changing a certain amount a vehicle owner must actually have expended for certain repairs to a vehicle in order to be eligible for a waiver under certain circumstances, changing mandatory annual inspection provision to require a certain periodic inspection, permitting an inspection facility to be equipped with a diagnostic lane for certain purposes, permitting the Administration to use funds in the Transportation Trust Fund to pay certain inspection costs under certain circumstances, providing that a certain inspection fee may not be charged to a vehicle owner under certain circumstances, permitting the Administration to decrease the inspection fee and return the fee paid by a certain vehicle owner under certain circumstances, setting forth legislative intent, clarifying language, and generally relating to the State's Motor Vehicle Emissions Inspection Program.~~

FOR the purpose of changing the date at which the motor vehicle emissions inspection program becomes mandatory; requiring the Motor Vehicle Administration Secretary of Transportation and a certain contractor to minimize certain expenses associated with the program during a certain period of time; providing for the appointment of a certain committee to consult with the Secretary of Transportation on certain matters; providing for certain progress reports by the Secretaries of Transportation and Health and Mental Hygiene to certain committees of the General Assembly; and changing the date at which the motor vehicle emissions program terminates; and generally relating to the motor vehicle emissions inspection program in Maryland.
