

(f) A representative of the Maryland Chiefs of Police Association;

(g) A member of the Senate of Maryland selected by the President of the Senate;

(h) A member of the House of Delegates selected by the Speaker of the House of Delegates;

(i) A representative of the Maryland Criminal Justice Coordinating Council;

(j) The Attorney General or a designee;

(k) A member of the Judicial branch of State Government; and

(l) Six public members who have interest and expertise in the problems of rape and sexual offenses, including representatives from rape crisis and victim assistance programs.

3. The chair shall be a public member, appointed by the Governor.

4. The Board shall conduct a thorough study of the problems of rape and sexual offenses and in connection therewith shall:

(a) Evaluate existing laws in Maryland and recommend changes where necessary;

(b) Conduct a statewide assessment of enforcement in the courts under the existing laws;

(c) Review law enforcement procedures and law enforcement training programs to determine the efficiency and effectiveness of the procedures and training programs and make recommendations where necessary;

(d) Review the per capita incidence of rape and sexual offenses, using