PROCLAMATION OF MARCH 3, 1982

RECISION OF REQUEST FOR DISASTER RELIEF

WHEREAS, I, Harry Hughes, Governor of Maryland, having been advised and informed that severe winter weather conditions, beginning on January 3, 1982, resulted in the freezing of major portions of the Chesapeake Bay and adjacent waterways; and

WHEREAS, Said weather conditions resulted in the unemployment of thousands of persons; and

WHEREAS, Acting on this knowledge, I declared on February 1, 1982, that a State of Emergency existed in Baltimore City and in Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Caroline, Cecil, Charles, Dorchester, Harford, Kent, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, Somerset, St. Mary's, Talbot, Wicomico and Worcester counties; and

WHEREAS, Said Emergency has been dealt with to the extent that emergency conditions no longer exist;

NOW, THEREFORE, Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Maryland, including, Article 16A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, and the Maryland Disaster Assistance Plan adopted by the Executive Order of September 26, 1975, I, HARRY HUGHES, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, HEREBY PROCLAIM
