

by law.

Subsection (c)(5) of this section is revised in standard language used to state a limitation on successive terms. Thus, the phrase "may not be reappointed for 4 years after completion of those terms" is substituted for the ambiguous reference "may not serve". This revision prevents appointment of the member to succeed some other member whose term, e.g., expires in this same year. This revision also clarifies that the prohibition addresses a 4-year period and does not prohibit appointment after that period. This substitution is patterned after the limitation on successive terms for members of county advisory councils on alcoholism, in § 8-313 of this article.

The third clause of former Article 59, § 32A(a)(1), which provided for a temporary chairman, is deleted as obsolete.

Defined terms: "Board" § 10-404
"Mental disorder" § 10-101 "Secretary" § 1-101
