

standard language used to state a limitation on successive terms. Thus, the word "full" is added to modify the reference to "4-year terms". This addition resolves any ambiguity that a member appointed under subsection (b)(4) of this section to serve the remainder of a vacant term might be limited to that term and then only 1 full term. As revised, a member who is appointed to the remainder of a term is eligible for reappointment to 2 additional full terms.

Also, the phrase "may not be reappointed for 4 years after completion of those terms" is substituted for the prohibition "{ n }o member shall be appointed to". This revision clarifies that the prohibition addresses a 4-year period and does not prohibit appointment after that period. This substitution is patterned after the limitation on successive terms for members of county advisory councils on alcoholism, in § 8-313 of this article.
