

land of the State reserved for tongers exclusively or closed by any rule or regulation, or order of the Department. The taking of oysters by scoop, dredge or handscrape by hand may be authorized by the Secretary upon the recommendations of the appropriate county tongers committee, in areas reserved for tonging when areas which are designated for tonging oysters are closed because of icing conditions at least 7 consecutive days. Handscraping may be authorized on a day for working day basis according to the number of days when tonging is not possible because of ice cover, but not to exceed 14 working days. The Secretary may specify areas to be opened and restrictions on gear. There shall be a limit of 10 bushels per man and no more than 30 bushels per boat. A person may not handscrape for oysters after 12 noon. However, this subsection does not apply to catching seed oysters under the surveillance and with the permission of the Department.

All first-class mine foremen and fire-boss certificate holders shall be subject to continuing education every 3 years. The continuing education shall emphasize mine health and safety legislation and regulations, advances in mining technology, and advances in first aid that have occurred since the certificate holder's most recent examination. All first-class mine foremen and fire-boss certificates issued prior to July 1, 1980 shall expire no later than July 1, 1983 unless reissued in accordance with this section.

10-418.

(b) The Secretary may grant certificates to any properly accredited person 14 years of age or older to take alive, train, and fly falcons, hawks, or owls. To obtain this certificate an applicant shall pay a $5 fee. [The certificate shall expire on June 30 of the issuing year. It may not be transferred to another person, and the Secretary may revoke it for cause at any time. A person may not possess more than two of the enumerated birds in any combination at any one time. In addition, a person may not sell or offer for sale any falcons, hawks, or owls.] The birds enumerated in this section shall be used for hunting game birds or mammals only during open season.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That section(s) of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland read(s) as follows:
