The running of any statute of limitations against the collection of such tax by distraint or otherwise shall be suspended for the period of being in such category as to any individual the collection of whose tax is deferred under this section, and for an additional period of nine months beginning with the day following the period of being in such category.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That section(s) of the Annotated Code of Maryland read(s) as follows:

Article 25 - County Commissioners

10D-2.

(b) (1) (i) In this subsection the following words have the meanings indicated.

(ii) "Commission" means the Planning and Zoning Commission.

(iii) "Zoning official" means a county employee with the duty of enforcing the zoning ordinance.

(2) Zoning officials may deliver a citation to any person whom they believe to be committing a civil zoning violation. A copy of the citation shall be retained by the zoning official and shall bear his certification attesting to the truth of the matter set forth. The citation shall also contain:

(i) The name and address of the person charged;

(ii) The nature of the violation;

(iii) The place where and time that the violation occurred;

(iv) The amount of the fine assessed;

(v) The manner, location, and time in which the fine may be paid to the County Commissioners; and

(vi) The person's right to elect to stand trial for the violation.

[(4)] (3) A preset fine not to exceed $100 may be imposed for each violation, and the County Commissioners may establish a schedule of preset fines for each violation. A preset fine is payable by the recipient of the citation to [a] THE County Commissioners within 20 calendar days of the receipt of the citation.
