

[(5)] (4) A person receiving a citation may elect to stand trial for the offense by notifying the Commission of his intention of standing trial. The notice shall be given at least 5 days prior to the date of payment as set forth in the citation. Upon receipt of the notice of the intention to stand trial, the Commission shall forward to the District Court having venue a copy of the citation and the notice from the person who received the citation indicating his intention to stand trial. Upon receipt of the citation, the District Court shall schedule the case for trial and notify the defendant of the trial date. All fines, penalties, or forfeitures collected by the District Court for zoning violations shall be remitted to the County Commissioners.

[(6)] (5) If a person receiving a citation for a violation fails to pay the fine therefor by the date of payment set forth on the citation and fails to file a notice of his intention to stand trial for the offense, a formal notice of the violation shall be sent to the owner's last known address. If the citation has not been satisfied within 15 days from the date of the notice, he shall be liable for an additional fine not to exceed twice the original fine. If after 35 days the citation has not been satisfied, the Commission may request adjudication of the case through the District Court. The District Court shall thereupon schedule the case for trial and summon the defendant to appear.

[(7)] (6) Adjudication of a violation pursuant to this section is not a criminal conviction for any purpose, nor does it impose any of the civil disabilities ordinarily imposed by a criminal conviction.

[(8)] (7) In any proceeding before the District Court, the violation shall be prosecuted in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth for municipal infractions in Article 23A, 3(b)(8) through (15), inclusive.
