

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Article 43, § 58.

In the introductory clause of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to an "infectious disease that endangers public health" is substituted for the reference to a "dangerous infectious disorder", to conform to other references in this title and to Department practice.

In subsection (a)(1) of this section, the former enumeration of types of public places is deleted as unnecessary.

Also in subsection (a)(1) of this section, the former specific requirement for notice to the owner, conductor, or driver of a public conveyance is deleted as unnecessary in light of the broad reference to "proper precautions" and as unenforceable.

In subsection (a)(2) of this section, the word "transfer" is substituted for the phrase "gives, lends, sells, transmits or exposes", for clarity and brevity.

Also in subsection (a)(2) of this section, the former enumeration of articles that are exposed to infection is deleted as unnecessary.

In subsection (b) of this section, language is added to state that a violation is a "misdemeanor".

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the former reference to the circuit court and the Criminal Court of Baltimore is deleted as unnecessary and inconsistent with the jurisdiction of the district courts.
