

The Federal Extended Benefits Triggering Formula

FOR the purpose of urging Congress to revise the Insured Unemployment Rate formula for triggering federal extended benefits under the unemployment insurance program so that individuals receiving extended benefits are calculated into the category of individuals receiving benefits under the formula; and urging Congress to revise the Insured Unemployment Rate mechanism for triggering federal extended benefits so that the Insured Unemployment Rates currently used to trigger extended benefits are not raised as scheduled on September 26, 1982.

Read the first time and referred to the Committee on Rules.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

Senate Resolution No. 1 - By Senators Stone, McGuirk, Clark, Abrams, Baker, Blount, Bonvegna, Boozer, Broadwater, Cade, Connell, Crawford, Curran, Cushwa, Denis, Donovan, Dorman, Douglass, Dypski, Helton, Hickman, Kelly, King, Komenda, Kramer, Lapidus, Levitan, Long, Malkus, Mason, Miller, Mitchell, Murphy, O'Reilly, Palumbo, Rasmussen, Schafer, Schweinhaut, Shore, Simpson, Smelser, Steinberg, Stroble, Thomas, Welcome, and Welsh:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, It was with great sadness that we learned this past May of the death of the Honorable Edward T. Conroy who represented the citizens of the State of Maryland for the greater part of his adult life.

WHEREAS, In a time of skepticism, Senator Conroy was a hero who was able to lead by his personal example as a husband, father, attorney, decorated war veteran, legislator, and church and community leader;

WHEREAS, Senator Conroy inspired the citizens of this State by his personal and moral courage;

WHEREAS, Senator Conroy took a stand and dedicated himself to preserving the values of family, home, and community;

WHEREAS, Senator Conroy, through his compassion and hard work, gave hope in America's future to those both able-bodied and handicapped;

WHEREAS, His death creates a void in the hearts of the community, the veterans organizations, the Senate of Maryland, and the Constitutional and Public Law Committee;