

MODIFYING EXISTING LAW TO PREVENT THE LOSS OF UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS TO MARYLAND CITIZENS WHO HAVE EXHAUSTED THEIR REGULAR UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, in the City of
Annapolis, this 2nd day of August, 1982.

Harry Hughes
Governor

ATTEST:

Patricia G. Holtz
Acting Secretary of State

Read and ordered journalized.

ELECTION OF PRESIDING OFFICER

The first order of business was the election of a temporary presiding officer.

The Honorable Joseph J. Long nominated the Honorable Frederick C. Malkus, Jr. as temporary presiding officer, which nomination was seconded by the Honorable Harry J. McGuirk and the Honorable James Clark, Jr. There being no further nominations, the Honorable Frederick C. Malkus, Jr. was unanimously elected temporary presiding officer.

The Honorable Joseph J. Long and the Honorable Edward P. Thomas were appointed to escort the President Pro Tem to the Chair.

The Secretary of the Senate then administered the oath of office to the President Pro Tem.

The next order of business was the election of a permanent presiding officer. This election was presided over by the President Pro Tem of the Senate.

The Honorable Margaret C. Schweinhaut, seconded by the Honorable Clarence W. Blount and the Honorable Jerome F. Connell nominated the Honorable James Clark, Jr. for President of the Senate.

The roll was then called, which resulted in the election of the Honorable James Clark, Jr. of Howard and Montgomery Counties for President of the Senate.

The Honorable Rosalie Silber Abrams and the Honorable Edward J. Mason were appointed to escort the President to