EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

August 6, 1982

I want to congratulate you on a job well done. We have accomplished what we set out to do and have done it in an orderly, thoughtful way.

Today's legislation addresses only the tip of the iceberg. Although we have alleviated a temporary problem for Marylanders who can not find work, we have not addressed the real problems of unemployment. That was not our purpose today, but it must become a top priority for the '83 Legislature.

To this end, I am asking each committee during this interim to review programs that touch upon both the broad economic picture in Maryland and the future needs of our people without jobs. Whether it be spending priorities, tax incentives, or economic programs, each of our committees
