CHAPTER 352

(Senate Bill 633)

AN ACT concerning

Real Estate Salesmen - Licenses - Inactive Status

FOR the purpose of providing that the Real Estate Commission may place the license of a person who has been granted a real estate salesman's license and is not currently affiliated with a real estate broker on inactive status for a certain time and under certain conditions; setting forth certain renewal requirements, including a continuing education requirement; altering the term for inactive license status; and relating generally to inactive real estate salesmen licenses.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
