

(10) The principal of and interest on any revenue bonds issued under this subsection shall be exempt from taxation in the State of Maryland as provided in § [6-104] 6-103 of this article.

(11) These provisions may not be construed to prevent the Commission from voluntarily applying to the payment of the principal of and interest on any revenue bonds issued under this subsection, either upon maturity or redemption, its general funds not otherwise committed. This authority shall be deemed to include the power to retire an entire issue of revenue bonds from the proceeds of general obligation refunding bonds issued by the Commission pursuant to the authority of § [6-105] 6-104 of this article. Upon the retirement of an issue of revenue bonds from the revenues of the facility financed thereby from other funds of the Commission, or by refunding as herein authorized, the Commission may elect to continue to charge for the use or enjoyment of any such facility, and may apply the revenues so derived to any other function, purpose or objective of the Commission.

(12) The Commission may adopt and, from time to time, amend, reasonable rules and regulations for the use and enjoyment by the general public of any facility financed under this subsection. These rules and regulations may not be so drawn as to exclude any person tendering the required fee or charge for such use and enjoyment because of race, creed or color of such person. Any lease of any such facility by the Commission shall contain appropriate and enforceable covenants by the lessee to comply with this limitation.

(G) NONE OF THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE 31, §§ 10 AND 11 OF THE CODE ARE APPLICABLE TO OR HAVE ANY BEARING UPON THE MANNER AND METHOD OF SALE OF BONDS AUTHORIZED BY THIS TITLE.

In the event of the inadequacy of the taxes for this purpose, there shall be levied by the county guaranteeing the bonds, in each year that an inadequacy exists, an additional tax upon all assessable property within the portion of the district in that county sufficient to make up the inadequacy. If the proceeds of the additional tax shall likewise be inadequate, then the county shall levy a tax upon all the assessable property within the corporate limits of the county sufficient to make up the inadequacy or deficiency in the revenues available for principal and interest maturities on the bonds [or notes]. Nothing contained in this section or elsewhere in this article may be deemed or construed as increasing or decreasing or otherwise modifying the limitations on the powers
