CHAPTER 465

(House Bill 973)

AN ACT concerning

Juvenile Services Administration - Educational Programs - Funds

FOR the purpose of providing that the funds for the operation of the educational programs in State juvenile residential institutions be provided in the budget of the Juvenile Services Administration and not in the budget of the State Department of Education; requiring the Juvenile Services Administration to develop and provide appropriate educational programs designed to meet the needs of the population within each State juvenile residential institution under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Services Administration; and generally relating to the educational programs within State juvenile residential institutions.
