

(h) Consistent with the State budget, [and] Article 21, and [subject to approval of the Board of Public Works] OTHER APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF LAW, the Secretary may contract with any person to provide services, [including consultant services,] SUPPLIES, CONSTRUCTION, AND MAINTENANCE for the Department or for any transportation related purpose.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1983.

Approved May 24, 1983.

CHAPTER 474

(House Bill 1075)

AN ACT concerning

Pensions - Correctional Officers and Maximum
Security Attendants

FOR the purpose of clarifying the pension, disability, and death benefits applicable to certain correctional officers and certain maximum security attendants; establishing that certain correctional officers and certain maximum security attendants be similarly treated regarding these benefits; providing for the receipt of ordinary and accidental disability benefits; providing for the vesting of a retirement allowance; providing for death benefits; providing for the adjustment of the retirement allowance; providing for a mandatory retirement age; providing for the administration, management, and funding of certain correctional officer's and certain maximum security attendant's benefits; making stylistic changes; and generally providing for the retirement and pension of certain correctional officers and certain maximum security attendants.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 73B - Pensions
Section 156
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1978 Replacement Volume and 1982 Supplement)

BY repealing

Article 73B - Pensions
Section 157
Annotated Code of Maryland