CHAPTER 479

(House Bill 1203)

AN ACT concerning

Draining Land - Boards of County Commissioners

FOR the purpose of authorizing every board of county commissioners in this State to appoint a board of drainage viewers to evaluate changes in land use on the request by the board of managers; authorizing the board of managers to use the evaluation report as a basis to levy the necessary tax to maintain drainage improvements; and repealing a certain reference to taxes levied in a certain proportion.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 25 - County Commissioners
Section 87
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1981 Replacement Volume and 1982 Supplement)

Preamble

WHEREAS, The Attorney General of Maryland in a letter dated May 25, 1982 approved House Bill 1479 of the 1982 Session of the General Assembly for constitutionality and legal sufficiency, although the Attorney General determined that, due to a discrepancy between the text and the title of the bill, it could only be given effect in Caroline County; and

WHEREAS, Being aware of this problem, the Governor signed House Bill 1479 on June 1, 1982, and the bill became Chapter 910 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1982; and
