

(5) A person who, with intent to defraud a purported issuer, a person or organization providing money, goods, services or anything else of value, or any other person, falsely makes or falsely embosses a purported credit card, or utters such a credit card or possesses such a credit card with knowledge that such credit card has been falsely made or falsely embossed is guilty of credit card forgery and is subject to the penalties set forth in (h)(2) of this section. A person "falsely makes" a credit card when he makes or draws, in whole or in part, a device or instrument which purports to be the credit card of a named issuer but which is not such a credit card because the issuer did not authorize the making or drawing, or alters a credit card which was validly issued. A person "falsely embosses" a credit card when, without the authorization of the named issuer, he completes a credit card by adding any of the matter, other than the signature of the cardholder, which an issuer requires to appear on the credit card before it can be used by a cardholder.

(6) A person other than the cardholder or a person authorized by him who, with intent to defraud the issuer, or a person or organization providing money, goods, services or anything else of value, or any other person, signs a credit card is guilty of credit card forgery and is subject to the penalties set forth in (h)(2) of this section.

(d) A person, who, with intent to defraud the issuer, a person or organization providing money, goods, services or anything else of value, or any other person, (i) uses for the purpose of obtaining money, goods, services or anything else of value a credit card obtained or retained in violation of (c) of this section or a credit card which he knows is forged; or (ii) obtains money, goods, services or anything else of value by representing without the consent of the cardholder that he is the holder of a specified card or by representing that he is the holder of a card and such card has not in fact been issued, violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in (h)(1) of this section, if the value of all money, goods, services and other things of value obtained in violation of this subsection does not exceed $300; and subject to the penalties set forth in (h)(2) of this section if such value exceeds $300.

(e) (1) A person who is authorized by an issuer to furnish money, goods, services or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card by the cardholder, or any agent or employees of such person, who, with intent to defraud the issuer or the cardholder, furnishes money, goods, services or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card obtained or retained in violation of (c) of this section or a credit card which he knows is forged violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in (h)(1) of this section, if the value of all money, goods, services and other things of value furnished in violation of this subsection does not exceed $300 and is subject to the penalties set forth in (h)(2) of this section if such value exceeds $300.
