

this subtitle and the order of such Commission or court of competent jurisdiction is certified to the Commission, any real estate license may be revoked by the Commission without any hearing whatsoever. Such written notice may be served by delivery of same personally to the applicant, or license holder, or by mailing same by [registered mail] CERTIFIED MAIL, RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, BEARING A POSTMARK FROM THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE, to the last known business address of such applicant, or license holder. If said applicant, or license holder, be a salesman, the Commission shall also notify the broker named in the salesman's application or license by mailing notice by [registered mail] CERTIFIED MAIL, RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, BEARING A POSTMARK FROM THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE, to the broker's last known business address. The hearing on such charges shall be at such time and place as the Commission shall prescribe. Any member of the Commission, its executive director or assistant director, or a member of a real estate hearing board shall have power to administer oaths and to subpoena and bring before it any person in the State, or take testimony of any such person by deposition with the same fees and mileage in the same manner as prescribed by law in judicial procedure in courts of this State in civil cases. Any party to any hearing before the Commission or a real estate hearing board shall have the right to the attendance of witnesses, in his behalf at such hearing, upon making request therefor to the Commission or a real estate hearing board and designating the person or persons sought to be subpoenaed.

Article 81 - Revenue and Taxes

82.

(a) If the person entitled to the balance over and above the amount required for the payment of taxes, interest, penalties, and costs of sale shall be unknown, or if his identity be known but his address unknown, the sum to which he shall be entitled shall be held by the collector in a special fund for a period of at least three years. During such period the collector shall make every reasonable effort to learn the identity of the said person, or to learn his address, as the case may be, by notice published at the courthouse door, [registered mail] CERTIFIED MAIL, RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, BEARING A POSTMARK FROM THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE, addressed to the said person's last known address, personal inquiry, or by any other reasonably possible means for ascertaining either the name or the address of the said person.

322.

(5) The lien of the State for income tax due and unpaid, and for interest, penalty, delinquent fee and costs, as by law provided, shall extend to and cover all salary, wages, hire, remuneration and compensation for personal services of every kind, due and owing at the time such lien accrues, and which shall become due thereafter, as long as said lien is not fully