

Article 11 - Public Local Laws of Maryland
(1979 Edition and October 1982 Supplement, as amended)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 11 - Frederick County

2-11-2.

The board of county commissioners shall erect and maintain, out of the receipt of their office, along the rights of way of the county roads, the necessary stop signs and the necessary signs, signals, markers or road names, for the purpose of directing the traveling public, warning them of danger, or for any other purpose [which, in the opinion of the roads board may be right or proper]. Any person who fails to obey such stop signs, unless traffic is controlled by traffic signals or officers, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Any person who removes, damages or defaces any such sign, signals, markers or road names shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined a sum not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00). Such fines shall be paid to the [county roads] board OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for road maintenance purposes.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1983.

Approved April 12, 1983.

CHAPTER 41

(House Bill 606)

AN ACT concerning

Annapolis Boundary Commission

FOR the purpose of extending the existence of the Annapolis Boundary Commission until a certain date for a certain purpose; extending the date by which the Commission shall submit its recommendations to the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Annapolis; and generally relating to the recommendations and existence of the Commission.
