CHAPTER 610

(House Bill 524)

AN ACT concerning

Election Laws - Polling Place - Posting Signs

~~FOR the purpose of requiring election judges to post signs at polling places to mark areas where canvassing, electioneering, or posting campaign literature may not occur, providing that the chief judges at each polling place shall post signs at a convenient location prohibiting election signs within a 100-foot radius of the entrance and exit to a polling place.~~

FOR the purpose of providing that certain election judges at each polling place shall post signs establishing limits inside which certain electioneering activities are prohibited; providing for certain discretion and guidelines in the placement of the signs; specifying certain requirements regarding the text of the signs; and generally relating to electioneering at polling places.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
