

(i) Prior to the preparation of definitive revenue bonds, the Authority, under the restrictions, may issue temporary revenue bonds with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds upon the issuance of the latter. The Authority also may provide for the replacement of any bonds which become mutilated or are destroyed or lost. The bonds may be issued without an election or any other proceedings or the happening of any conditions or things other than those proceedings, conditions, and things specified and required by this subtitle.

(j) A resolution providing for the issuance of revenue bonds also may provide for the issuance of additional bonds and may limit the amount by the resolution or trust indenture, for the purpose of paying the cost of any extensions, additions, and improvements which thereafter become necessary; the additional bonds may be sold from time to time in the manner hereinabove provided and shall be deemed a part of the original issue authorized by the resolution, and shall be issued under such restrictions and limitations as prescribed by the resolution or trust indenture; but the additional bonds shall rank equally and on a parity with the other bonds authorized thereby.

(k) The Authority may provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding and issued under the provisions of this section. The issuance of such refunding bonds, the details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the duties of the Authority in respect to them shall be governed by the provisions of this section insofar as applicable. The refunding bonds shall mature at such time or times not exceeding [forty (40)] 40 years from the date or dates of their respective issues as determined by the Authority.

(l) The Authority may provide by resolution for the issuance of a single issue of its revenue bonds for the combined purposes of (1) paying the cost of any improvement, extension, enlargement, or reconstruction of the market OR PARK and (2) refunding its bonds theretofore issued for such market AND PARK and then outstanding and which shall then have matured or be subject to redemption or can be acquired for retirement. The revenue refunding bonds shall mature at such time or times not exceeding [forty (40)] 40 years from the date or dates of their respective issues as may be determined by the Authority.

(m) All moneys received from any revenue bonds issued and sold under the provisions of this section shall be applied solely for the purposes for which the bonds are authorized or to the sinking fund created for the payment of the bonds, and there is created and granted a lien upon such moneys until so applied in favor of the holders of the bonds or paid to the trustee hereinafter provided for the bonds.

(n) In the discretion of the Authority, the revenue bonds may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the Authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank
