

Annotated Code of Maryland
(1980 Replacement Volume and 1982 Supplement)

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 81 - Revenue and Taxes
Section 9C(b)
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1980 Replacement Volume and 1982 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 81 - Revenue and Taxes

9C.

(a) (1) Except as otherwise stated herein, the governing bodies of Baltimore City and of the following counties, and of any city located within the county, shall grant a single mandatory credit against the amount of any county or city ordinary taxes or any other special charges or assessments specifically described herein, whichever is applicable, levied in the respective counties or cities against the property described in this section. The credit shall be allowed in the amount of the total assessed value of the property multiplied by the applicable ordinary tax rate or in the total amount of the special charges or assessments. The governing body shall designate the administrative unit or official to administer the tax credits authorized herein, and may also adopt such rules and regulations as may be needed for the administration of this section, to the extent not inconsistent with this section.

(b) In Allegany County, (1) from county taxation only, real and tangible personal property, owned directly or indirectly by any bona fide labor union or unions, or by any corporation whose capital stock is exclusively owned by any bona fide labor union or unions, when such property is used solely for the mutual benefit of its members and not for profit, except that any part of such property which is commercially rented shall be taxable to the extent of the commercial use on the fair value of the rented property; (2) tangible personal property owned by nonprofit television broadcast translator stations, which are supported principally by public subscription; (3) from county taxation only, real property owned by a religious organization, which property is located in La Vale and is leased to the La Vale Athletic Association for the purpose of conducting athletic and recreational programs for youth, but only when this property is used solely and exclusively for the above purpose; (4) from county and city taxation, real and tangible personal property owned by the South Cumberland Business and Civic Association, Inc., and known as the South Cumberland Civic Center; (5) from county and special district taxation only, real and tangible personal property owned by the Cresaptown Civic Improvement