

otherwise of full force and effect. If the court be satisfied by information and due proof under oath, at any time during the three years, that the defendant has violated the terms of the order, the court immediately may proceed to the trial of the defendant under the original indictment or sentence him or her under the original conviction, as the case may be. In the case of forfeiture of a recognizance and enforcement of it by execution, the sum recovered, in the discretion of the court, may be paid in whole or in part to the person or institution having custody of the minor child or children or to the [bureau of support enforcement] CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION.

Article 88A - Social Services Administration

(a) The Income Maintenance Administration is established within the Department of Human Resources. The income maintenance functions provided in the laws of this State for the Social Services Administration are transferred to the Income Maintenance Administration. The term "income maintenance functions" includes all the powers, duties, and responsibilities provided for the Social Services Administration in the following programs: aid to families with dependent children and other related cash benefit programs; [support enforcement and collection;] general public assistance; general public assistance to employables; public assistance to adults; emergency assistance; food stamps; and medical assistance eligibility determinations. References to the "Social Services Administration", "State Department", or "State Administration" in the laws of this State that concern income maintenance functions are deemed to mean the Income Maintenance Administration.

(a) (1) The State Administration shall be the central coordinating and directing agency of all social service and public assistance activities in this State, including aid to families with dependent children, general public assistance, public assistance to adults, child welfare services, food stamps, [child support enforcement,] and any other social service and public assistance activities financed in whole or in part by the State Administration. For the purposes of these powers, child welfare services being provided to persons under the age of 18 may continue after their eighteenth birthday but not beyond their twenty-first birthday.

(2) All of the activities of the local departments in the counties and in Baltimore City, which the State Administration finances, in whole or in part, shall be subject to the supervision, direction and control of the State Administration.

(b) The State Administration may develop and implement an automated statewide income maintenance system and related
