344.

(a) In any indictment, information, warrant, or other charging document for theft it is sufficient to use a formula substantially to the following effect: "That A-B on the ..... day of ....., 19..., in the County (City) aforesaid, did steal (here specifying the property or services stolen) of C-D, having a value of (less than $300 or $300 OR greater) in violation of Article 27, Section 342, of the Annotated Code of Maryland; contrary to the form of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, and against the peace, government and dignity of the State."

413.

(e) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless a contrary meaning is clearly intended from the context in which the term appears:

(1) The terms "defendant" and "person[,]" , except as those terms appear in subsection (d)(7) OF THIS SECTION, include only a principal in the first degree.

534W-1.

[(a)] The provisions of § 534W of this article do not apply to:

(1) Any establishment which offers service as its primary business;

(2) Any business if it does not have more than six employees on any one shift on Sunday. In addition to these six persons, the business may also have two additional persons performing security duties;

(3) Any person who by reason of his religious conviction observes a day other than Sunday as his day of rest and actually refrains from labor or secular business on that day. The term "a day other than Sunday" as used herein shall mean any consecutive 24-hour period;

(4) Industries where continuous processing or manufacturing is required by the very nature of the process involved;

(5) The four consecutive Sundays that immediately precede December 25;
