

The expenses of the accommodation, maintenance, and medical care of the prisoner whose temporary removal has been authorized, in accordance with this section, shall be paid by the prisoner or his relatives or friends, or from any funds that are available, shall be a charge upon the county, city, or town from which such inmate was committed, and collectible by the officer in charge of such institution, in accordance with the procedure prescribed by Title 16 of Health - General Article.

735.

(c) "Expungement[,]"", with respect to court records or police records, means the effective removal of these records from public inspection[,]:

(1) By obliteration; [or]

(2) By removal to a separate secure area to which the public and other persons having no legitimate reason for being there are denied access; or

(3) If effective access to a record can be obtained only by reference to other records, by the expungement of the other records, or the part of them providing the access.

(f) [As used in this section, "crime] "CRIME of violence" [is as defined] HAS THE MEANING STATED in § 643B(a) of this article.

752.

(c) If the challenge or any part of it is determined to be valid, the central repository shall make the appropriate correction on its records and shall notify any criminal justice agency which has custody of the incomplete or inaccurate information, or portion of [it] IT, of the correction, and the agency shall take appropriate steps to correct its records. The agency shall certify to the central repository that the correction was made.

Article 33 - Election Code

2-2.

Before entering upon the duties of their office, members of the board shall each take and subscribe to the oath prescribed in Article [1, § 6] I, § 9 of the Constitution, which oath shall be taken before and duly recorded by the clerk of the circuit court for the county. Within twenty days after their appointments become effective, the members of the board for each county and for the City of Baltimore, respectively, shall organize as a board by electing one of their members as president. They shall each hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed for good cause shown. The