

(c) The Secretary of [Employment and Social Services] HUMAN RESOURCES may in his discretion exercise or perform any power, duty, responsibility or function which any of the administrations, divisions, boards, commissions, offices or other agencies within the jurisdiction of the Department of [Employment and Social Services] HUMAN RESOURCES are authorized to exercise or perform[, except for those powers, duties, responsibilities and functions set forth in § 7, subsections (e), (f), (g), (h), and (i) and § 15, subsections (a)(4), (b) and (c) of Article 95A of this Code].

205F.

[(a) The Employment Security Administration is established and continued as the same Department of Employment Security hitherto existing. The Employment Security Administration shall be part of the Department of Employment and Social Services. The Employment Security Administration shall have the powers, duties, responsibilities, and functions provided in the laws of this State for the Department of Employment Security. All references in this Code, in any other laws of this State, or in ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, legal actions, directives, or documents to the Department of Employment Security shall be deemed to mean the Employment Security Administration. From and after September 1, 1970, all rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions heretofore conferred upon or exercised by the Department of Employment Security shall be transferred to and be exercised by the Employment Security Administration subject to the authority of the Secretary of Employment and Social Services as set forth in §§ 205A, 205B, and 205C of this article or elsewhere in this Code.

(b)] The Social Services Administration is established and continued as the same State Department of Social Services hitherto existing. The Social Services Administration shall be part of the Department of Human Resources. The Social Services Administration shall have the powers, duties, responsibilities and functions provided in the laws of this State for the State Department of Social Services, except for the powers, duties, responsibilities, and functions that pertain to the income maintenance programs that are assigned to the Income Maintenance Administration under Article 88A, § 1A of the Annotated Code. Any reference to the State Department of Social Services or the State Department of Public Welfare in this Code, in any other laws of this State, or in ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, legal actions, directives or documents shall be deemed to mean the Social Services Administration if, and to the extent that, the reference involves social service programs. However, if, and to the extent, the reference involves income maintenance programs that are assigned to the Income Maintenance Administration under Article 88A, § 1A of the Code, the reference shall be deemed to mean the Income Maintenance Administration. From and after September 1, 1970, all rights, powers, duties, obligations, and functions heretofore conferred upon or exercised by the State Department of Social Services shall be transferred
