

(2) The chairmen of the Senate Budget and Taxation Committee and the House Appropriations Committee;

(3) The majority and minority leaders of the Senate and the House of Delegates or their designees; and

(4) Other members of the Senate and the House of Delegates as may be appointed by the President and the Speaker[;].

113.

[(a)] In reporting the budget for consideration by the Senate and the House of Delegates, the budget committees shall consider the recommendations of the Spending Affordability Committee and shall either report a budget bill that conforms to the recommendations of the Spending Affordability Committee or if the level of the budget bill reported by either committee is above the recommendations of the Spending Affordability Committee, the Committee shall provide the Senate or the House of Delegates with an analysis stating the extent to which the budget exceeds the recommendations of the Spending Affordability Committee and explaining the Committee's rationale for exceeding the recommendations.

Article 40A - Maryland Public Ethics Law

4-101.

(c) The regulations promulgated under [this] subsection (b) of this section shall be based on the experience of the Commission in opinion-writing and enforcement under Title 3 OF THIS ARTICLE and in disclosure review under THIS Title [4].

4-103.

The statement required to be filed by this title shall contain schedules disclosing the following interests of the person making the statement, together with the following information, if known for the calendar year for which the required statement is to be filed:

(c) A schedule of all interests in any other business entity which does business with the State. This schedule, as to each such interest, shall include:

(1) The name and address of the principal office of the business entity;

(2) The nature and amount of the interest held, including any conditions thereto and encumbrances; [and]

(3) With respect to any interest transferred, in whole or in part, at any time during the year for which the statement is filed, a description of the interest transferred,