CHAPTER 113

(Senate Bill 245)

AN ACT concerning

Treasurer - Undeliverable Checks Fund

FOR the purpose of providing a procedure by which checks issued by the Treasurer which are returned as undeliverable are canceled and warranted into an account entitled "Undeliverable Checks Fund"; requiring that checks returned as undeliverable be held in safekeeping for a certain period of time; requiring diligent efforts to determine the proper address of the payee; providing for the cancellation of undelivered checks after a certain period of time elapses; providing for the reissue of checks warranted into the "Undeliverable Checks Fund"; providing for the return of certain funds from the Fund to their source; providing that the Treasurer shall determine at certain times which checks have remained in the Fund for 7 years and shall secure a warrant from the Comptroller transferring those funds to the General Fund of the State; and providing generally for the disposition of undeliverable checks.
