

Upon the matter contained in the same Petition and did therefore order and require the Honourable Phillips Calvert Esq<sup>r</sup> Chancellor to stay any further proceedings upon the said Decree until the end of the then next provinciall Court and the Compt<sup>t</sup> attorney this day alledging that the said Petition was merely putt in for delay to stay the signing and imroling of the said Decree and that there had passed one Court to wit February Court and the Difend<sup>t</sup> nor his Councill die in the West Stir or move the Court to be heard therin and the Compt<sup>t</sup> attorney offering severall Reasons against the said Petition and the staying of the — Imrolling of the Decree aforesaid this Court therupon and upon reading of the said Petition and order <sup>hereupon</sup> and what was alledgedon either side was sufficiantly satisfied that the matter in the said Petition — mentioned had been fully argued at the hearing of the cause and — therefore they thought not fit to recede from their former order but doth Order that the said former order and Decree do stand and be confirmed and that the said Decree be forthwith signed and imrolled — and that the Compt<sup>t</sup> proceed thereupon as therby is directed —
