Interrogatories formerly Exhibited unto Nicholas Printed Edmund Dermott and Richard Dalton by the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Phillip Calvert Esq. Commissary Gen<sup>l</sup> and Judge for the probate of wills and granting Administrations within this Province for the proving of the last will of John Doory late of Sth Marys City Jurisdiction deceased First. Did you know John Doory deceased, how long did you know him, what time did he dye was you a servant to him at that time of his death, or did you live in the house with him.

Secondly. Did you perceive by John Doorys discourse that he had a quiet mind to make his will and did not he tell you for much did not he command you to fetch some person to write his will, and who did he bid you fetch to him, and what instructions did you hear give Nicholas Paynter about making his will And when the said Doory gave the said Paynter instructions and Directions for making his will was the Doory of sound memory to the best of your knowledge you or no, whether you did see the said Doory give order for the same.
